

Part-Time Deputy Probation Officer II

Stanislaus County Probation Department

$32.02-$38.92 Hourly

This is a continuous recruitment. Applications will be screened on an ongoing basis.

THE POSITION

The Deputy Probation Officer II classification is the journey level Peace Officer position for officers who generally have at least one-year successful full-time experience as a sworn Probation Officer in a same or similar classification in a probation department and have successfully completed mandatory training such as the 174-hour California State Probation Officer Core training. Officers may be assigned to intake, investigation, supervision, or multi-agency collaborative projects in adult or juvenile casework in a variety of locations in Stanislaus County. Deputy Probation Officer assignments involve the possibility of bodily injury, dealing with angry, hostile, and potentially combative clientele, and exposure to chemical weapons such as pepper spray. This position may be required to work flexible hours, including evenings and weekends. This position also performs related duties as assigned.

- Additional compensation of 2.5% will be paid to eligible certified bilingual incumbents.

The part-time Deputy Probation Officer II is a sworn position which falls under the Unclassified Service of the County and considered "at will" for labor relations purposes.

The part-time Deputy Probation Officer is a provisional classification where permanent status may not be obtained. This position is subject to overtime, standby, shift, and call back assignments and will perform job related duties as assigned. This position is non-benefited except for participation in a 401a program with Nationwide.

The Job Task Analysis provides information detailing the physical and functional demands of the classification. For the complete job task analysis, visit the Risk Management website at <http://www.stancounty.com/riskmgmt/> under "Disability Management".
